THE DELAWARE LATIN WORKSHOP

Saturday, November 9, 2013

9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Newark

9:00 - 9:15 a.m.  Greetings, Introductions, and Overview:
Lynn Sawlivich, president, Delaware Classical Association

9:15 - 10:15 a.m.  Session 1:
Google Rocks! How Online Collaboration Can Make Latin Composition Really Work
Charles Umiker, The Tatnall School

10:15 - 10:30 a.m.  coffee break

10:30 - 11:30 a.m.  Session 2:
Beyond Indiana Jones: Archaeology For Teachers And Students
Miriam G. Clinton, University Of Pennsylvania

11:30 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.  Session 3:
Feel the Rhythm: Training Students To Recite Latin Meters With Confidence
Lynn Sawlivich, DCA President

12:15 p.m. - 1:00 p.m. lunch and wrap-up

Contact Lynn Sawlivich, DCA President, at lsaw@udel.edu to register or for more information.

Approved by the Delaware Department of Education for Professional Development credit.
There is no fee to attend this workshop, thanks to a generous grant from the Classical Association of the Atlantic States (CAAS).